IGE Nordic appoints new CFO

IGE Nordic has appointed Joakim Lindén as new Chief Financial Officer as of January 1st, 2008. Joakim Lindén has extensive experience in accounting, reporting, financing, general administration and project management. He has worked more than 10 years in the credit market for the Swedish bank Nordea and about 10 years in the private equity sector for AB Traction and Svenskt Rekonstruktionskapital AB. He has also held positions as managing director for the Swedish stockbroker Tempelman Securities AB and as member of the board in 2 publicly traded companies, Target Games AB, Sweden, and Tempelman AS, Estonia. He holds a B.Sc. degree in Economics & Business administration from the University of Lund. Mr. Lindén is a Swedish citizen and resides in Stockholm, Sweden.

Comments by Fredric Bratt, CEO IGE Nordic AB: “Joakim Lindén’s strong financial background combined with hands-on experience in accounting, administration and project management makes him an ideal CFO for IGE Nordic and will greatly strengthen our managerial and administrative capacity to grow in the future.”
